School Tax Rate Increase Is Estimated at 26 Cents

The Orinda Union School District board of trustees has formally adopted a 1960-61 operating budget which will require an estimated 26-cent increase in the district's tax rate.

Totaling $1,599,336, the new budget represents an increase of $192,947 over the 1959-60 budget of $1,406,389.

JAMES JENTGES, the district's assistant superintendent for business, reported the increase in the budget was necessitated by the planned opening of the new intermediate school at Inland Valley, with the consequent increased cost for teachers, other personnel and supplies.

Other factors which caused the budgetary increase, according to Jentges, are the addition of new special services, such as foreign language, speech and guidance; a reduction in the number of students per class, requiring additional teachers; and by pay raises granted by the trustees.

He said the tax rate for the district probably will reach $2.39 per $100 assessed valuation, 26 cents higher than last year's rate of $2.13, but 36 cents below the maximum rate of $2.75 approved by the district voters in 1957.

JENTGES REPORTED that 11 cents of the 26-cent tax rate increase is due to the passage of the Collier Bill, which reduces the amounts which will be received by the district as its share of state money.

The district's apportionments for student attendance and transportation will be affected by the Collier Bill, he noted, and what money does not come from the state has to be made up out of local taxes.

Jentges reported to the trustees that the St. Mary's School, which is scheduled to open in Orinda in the fall, will not affect the school district financially.

He said it will, however, relieve the enrollment pressure on the Orinda public schools and may make it possible for additional students to be absorbed into the public schools in 1961-62 without a raise in the tax rate.

Vandals Hit New Bowling Center

The Rheem Bowl, now under construction in the Rheem Shopping Center, was the target of vandals this week who caused damage amounting to more than $1000, the manager, Bob Kank, said.

Sheriff's deputies believe the vandals to be juveniles. They broke through a skylight, put pin-setting pegs in a can of white paint, which they poured over the floor, and smeared paint and wet plaster over floors and walls.

The manager said more pegs must be obtained before construction can continue.

Association To Consider Plans For Two Buildings

Two requests for approval of new buildings in Orinda have been referred to the planning committee of the Orinda Association by the association's board of directors.

Association President Vic Kingston reported to the directors Monday night that Lloyd Carrigan asked for the group to approve the rezoning of 1½ acres at the end of Santa Maria Way to permit construction of garden apartments.

Kingston said that Carrigan proposed to build 33 units in the apartment building. The property owner said construction of medical offices would be his second choice, the president reported.

The directors voted to refuse approval for the multiple dwellings, but recommended that the planning committee consider construction of the office building.

The second request Monday night came from R. L. Klemmedson, local architect, who owns property at the corner of Santa Maria Way and Orinda Way. The property is 143 by 130 feet.

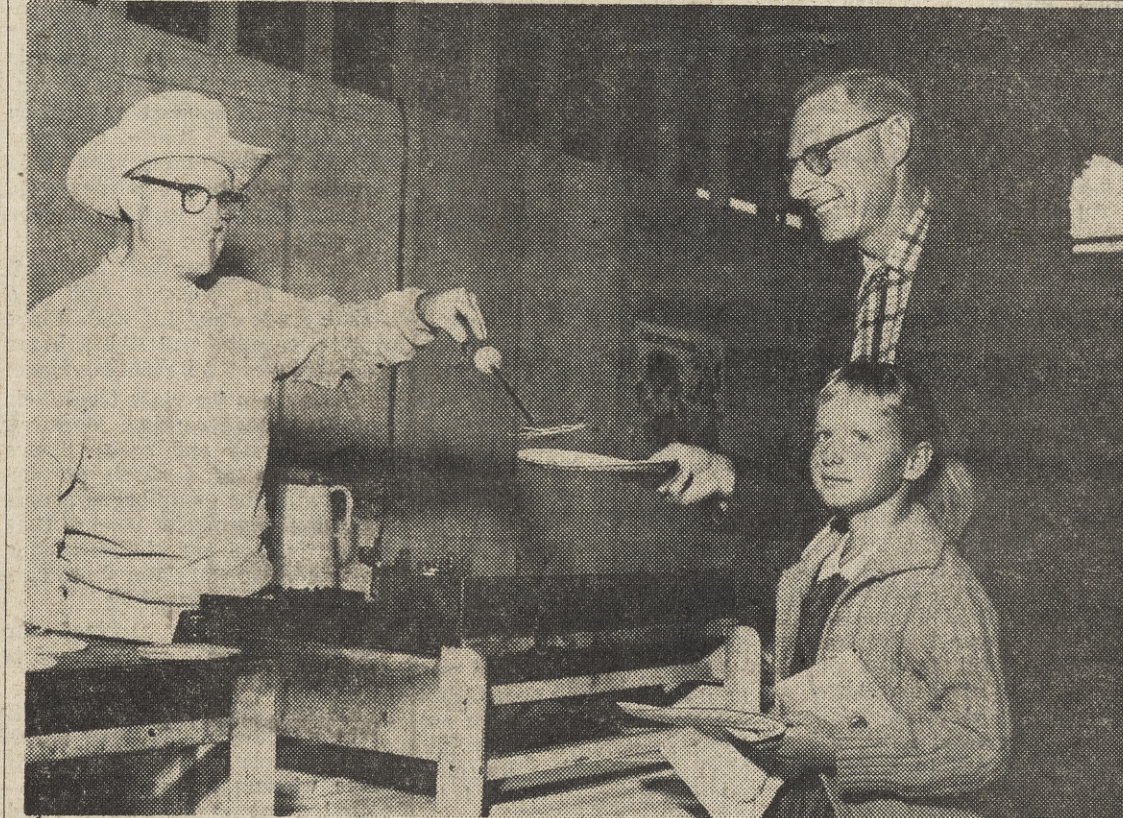

Klemmedson asked to be allowed to construct an office and shop building on the property. The building would be about 7100 square feet in size and would provide off-street parking, he said.

Woman to Serve At GOP Meet

Mrs. Donald Krotz, 44 Monte Vista Road, will serve as honorary sergeant-at-arms of the 3371 Victoria Avenue when the bomb was thrown by a young man in a blue car, who drove away without stopping.

Mrs. Krotz is a leader in the northern division of the California Federation of Republican Women. The federation has 107 clubs in 39 counties from Monterey County to the Oregon border.

The aim of the federation is to get all Republicans registered and to the polls. Most of its work is in conjunction with the various county central committees.

Tossed Bombs Cause Fright But Little Damage

The Contra Costa County Sheriff's Department and the Walnut Creek Police Department are investigating two bomb scares which occurred Sunday.

A bomb tossed in the vicinity of Victoria Avenue and Moraga Boulevard in Lafayette at about 4:12 p.m. frightened residents in the quiet neighborhood, but caused no injuries nor serious damage.

Elaine Cadman, 15, was seated in her car outside her home at 3371 Victoria Avenue when the bomb was thrown by a young man in a blue car, who drove away without stopping.

Mrs. W. A. Nelson, 3372 Victoria Avenue, said the explosion was "deafening." Paper wrappings from the bomb were turned over to sheriff's deputies by Bernard A. Hansen of 3374 Moraga Boulevard.

The second bomb was tossed Sunday at 1:30 a.m. near the Holiday Lodge, 2079 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek.

The Walnut Creek Police Department said the bomb was a simulated artillery shell.

Loot Found in Martinez Rooms

About $1500 worth of property taken July 1 from Dr. Edward S. Maloney's home at 6 Charles Hill Road, Orinda, has been found in the rooms of Willard James Wheeler at 721 Main Street, Martinez.

Wheeler, 52, has been identified by Army Lieutenant Richard A. Lockner in a county jail lineup as the man he surprised coming from his home at 161 Taylor Road, Pleasant Hill, on March 4. Lockner said when he surprised Wheeler, the man pulled a pistol and took Lockner's wallet. The wallet was returned when Lockner pleaded for important papers it contained, with $89 intact in a secret pocket.

Police said Wheeler has confessed to nearly 50 burglaries in this area. A considerable amount of loot has been recovered from his rooms and is being traced, according to Sheriff's Detective E. H. Hobert.

Wheeler will be arraigned in Superior Court Monday at 9:30 a.m. He is being held in the county jail in lieu of $2520 bail.

Lynne Abbes In Finals Of Tourney

Lynne Abbes, Orinda's 11-year-old tennis darling, has moved into the finals of the first U. S. Lawn Tennis Association Junior Tournament in Chattanooga, Tenn., it was learned yesterday.

Lynne accomplished the feat by defeating Judy Dixon of Montclair, N. J., in the girls' 11 semi-finals yesterday morning. The scores of the matches were 6-0, 6-1.

The Orinda lass, seeded second in the 11-year-old group, is expected to play the No. 1 seeded girl, Peaches Bartkovic of Hamtramck, Mich., today in the finals.

Miss Abbes also participated in the 11-year-old doubles semi-finals yesterday. She is being accompanied on the trip by Kevin Merrick, her coach and pro at the Orinda Country Club.

Homeowners Ask Delay of Bear Creek Road Action

Three homeowners groups asked the County Planning Commission Tuesday night to defer action on the proposed relocation of Bear Creek Road until a final decision is made regarding recreational areas.

Following an hour and 20 minutes of discussion by proponents and opponents of the road relocation, the commissioners continued the hearing until 8 p.m. Tuesday, and asked County Park Director Duane Mattison to present a report at that time.

The county has stated that the road relocation is necessary because Bear Creek Road will be inundated by the East Bay Municipal Utility District's Briones Reservoir.

EBMUD HAS contracted to construct the relocated road, and two private engineering firms hired by the county recommended construction of the road on the south side of the proposed reservoir at a cost of about $4 million.

The Sleepy Hollow Improvement Association, the Happy Valley Improvement Association and a group of Briones Valley residents voiced their opposition to these recommendations.

In addition, the Orinda Association, through its president, Victor Kingston, indicated its intention to make a statement in opposition at the next hearing. Directors of the group voted Monday night to take a public stand against the road.

ANOTHER SPEAKER Tuesday night was D. Jackson Faustman, a private traffic engineer from Sacramento who was employed by the county to make a study of the road relocation.

Faustman submitted his report recently, and said in it that he worked on the assumptions that the Briones Reservoir would not be developed for recreational uses, neighboring EBMUD reservoirs would not be recreationally developed and the proposed Briones Park would be developed.

With these assumptions in mind, Faustman reported, none of the alternative routes for the relocated road are economically justifiable, but with a Briones Park developed such a road would be necessary to handle traffic to and from the park.

THE COUNTY is purchasing 1425 acres in the Briones Valley area between Lafayette and Orinda for the proposed park, and a total of $210,000 has already been expended on the project.

At a meeting of EBMUD and county officials July 11, however, two utility district subcommittees recommended the opening of the Lafayette, Chabot and Briones reservoirs to boating, fishing and picnicking.

An executive committee to be formed August 8 by the district will make further studies of the proposal. A recent state law permits the recreational usage of terminal reservoirs and provides for public elections to determine the usage if necessary.

ALL OF THE homeowners groups represented before the county planners Tuesday night called attention to the non-validity of Faustman's assumptions, and asked that additional reviews be made before final action is taken.

Robert Kahn, president of the Happy Valley group, said "recognizing that the residents of Happy Valley want to have the best possible recreation facility, we suggest that before further expenditures are unalterably committed that the entire program for Briones Park should be reviewed to be sure that we are on the right track."

He suggested a four-point program for the county to follow in accomplishing the new review.

FIRST, KAHN said, the county and EBMUD should settle the amount of money damages involved in inundating portions of Bear Creek Road and Hampton Road and have these funds set aside for use by the county at a future date for replacement of the roads.

During the period that this money is set aside interest earned on these funds should be added to the principal amount, he suggested.

No roads should be constructed at the present time, according to Kahn's program. He added that the limited usage of the inundated roads for travel to Martinez does not warrant major expenditures of funds at this time.

THIRD, THE association president declared, the proper location of a county park should be reviewed in light of the new legislation that permits opening terminal reservoirs for recreational purposes and the action now being taken in this matter.

Kahn said, "Full consideration should be given to consolidating any development of Briones Reservoir with a county park."

From Prison Camp to College President — A Long Trip

Harry X. Ford Has Taken This Journey

By NORMAN COLBY

Walnut Creek's Harry X. Ford, 39-year-old president of the California College of Arts and Crafts, Oakland, says he owes much to his training and instruction at U.C.L.A., Sacramento State College and the John Herron Art Institute.

But he insists that "Stalag-Luft 3" and "Stalag 7-A" from which he "graduated" with the help of General Patton's armored divisions in 1945, "... changed the direction of my life to teaching."

Ford's special training at both Stalags included such artistic Red Cross, also), how to stay alive on a cross country walk in mid-winter.

HE SAID, "As a Third Reich prisoner, I observed that with each man the veneer was skinned off. In the basic drive for survival, you could see each prisoner as he really is."

"And I observed how the wrong kind of education can affect brilliant minds.

"The only way to combat that is the right kind of education.

"Before the war I wanted to become a commercial artist, I still work with oils at home, and my stuff is hung all over the place.

"BUT WHEN I came out of the camp, I felt more strongly the need for enrichment and understanding of the humanities. A good art education should include a good general education," Ford said.

Life in the Stalags was preferable to death in the air over Cologne, Germany, which was the fate of most of Ford's buddies riding a B-17 in 1943.

The war interrupted Ford's art institute training, and he learned instead the bombardier's trade at Albuquerque, New Mexico, with the Army Air Corps before shipping over to England and the Eighth Air Force.

Lieutenant Ford had three months of overseas service and five missions when flak and German fighters put the finishing touches on his B-17.

AS A PRISONER of war he was herded with 2000 other air officers into the "center compound" of Stalag Luft-3, near the Polish border.

Prisoner escape efforts at Stalag-Luft were coordinated during "Little Theater" productions, and Ford became "Aunt Abbie" in "Arsenic and Old Lace" and played in "The Man Who Came to Dinner."

He didn't succeed in escaping, although a few others did. The Germans promptly caved in and flooded most tunnels dug under the barbed-wire fences.

"D-Day" interrupted preparations for "Our Town." Although other shows were produced, "Our Town" was never revived. Later when the Russians got close in the winter of '44-'45, Ford and the others were marched to Stalag 7-A, near Munich.

THEY CALLED it the winter death-march at the time, and a book has been written about it," he said.

Escape efforts at Stalag 7-A were vigorous, but the Germans got tough, on orders of Hitler.

"They executed 80 British soldiers who attempted to escape from a nearby camp, and we were warned of the same treatment. We had a lot of men who had attempted to escape, and were returned. We wondered if they were to be shot, too.

"We held a big meeting and formed a military-type combat team.

"THEN WE told the German officers that we would fight if they tried to take any of our men outside for any reason. We figured we were as good as dead anyway. But the Germans did nothing."

Ford told how the camp was a scene of German dissension as the Allied armies closed in.

"The Germans mostly wanted to surrender, except the S.S. troops. They had quite a battle over it."

After the war, Ford was discharged as a captain, married Celeste, the girl he had met while in state-side Air Corps training in New Mexico, took his bachelor's degree from U.C.L.A., a master's from Sacramento State College, and did some art teaching.

BUT THAT wasn't his last recollection of the Stalags.

"After three years, I got a job teaching dependents of service men and civilians at Stuttgart, Germany, and I was able to show Celeste Stalag 7-A.

"It looked different. No more barbed wire, and somehow it looked smaller. It was being used as a camp for East German refugees, and there were shrubs and trees, flower boxes and beer gardens.

"The machine gun towers were gone.

"So were the mountains of tins cans left from rations the liberating armored divisions gave us. My old barracks was gone, too."

THE MEMORY of the stalags didn't die with Ford's acceptance of a teacher education department chairmanship at the Oakland college.

Wandering through a Walnut

Creek grocery store, he ran into Bob Regnier, an ex-pilot and prison-camp acquaintance. This was a surprise!

Both Ford, now a major, and Regnier are officers in the local 941st Air Reserve Squadron, U.S. Air Force.

At home, Harry and Celeste have John, 14, known as "JD," and Tony, 3, whom they adopted in Germany.

THEY LIVE in one of those stylish homes on San Benito Drive, Eichler tracts—and there isn't a Red Cross mercy package in sight!

At the office, Ford says, "Our college purpose is not just to enhance technical skills, but to develop our students into solid, free-thinking citizens.

"They are not just future artists—they are future citizens and parents. This is not a small thing. "For me, my association with the college is a culmination of all my ambitions and philosophy developed during those prisoner days, when my objectives in life became clear."

AS A GERMAN prisoner, Air Corps First Lieutenant Harry Ford thought about how he would use his life, if he got the chance. For two years those chances looked slim. But things were looking up when a pal took this shot of Harry in the middle and two other officers, shortly after Allied liberation. The smiles are new, but the grime and dirt are not.—(Photo courtesy of a German soldier, whose camera was "liberated").

AS A COLLEGE president, Harry Ford has time to relax in his San Benito Drive home with "JD," his 14-year-old son. The oil painting in the background is one of Harry's recent efforts. Harry spends a lot of time these days thinking about the true mission of his California College of Arts and Crafts in Oakland. His views were largely formed during wartime days.—Sun photo by Bob Rush.

Thieves Can Be Foiled-- Just Follow These Rules

By BILL HAYWARD

Have you ever thought how you would feel upon returning from a vacation or an evening out to find that a burglar had ransacked your home?

The chances of such a catastrophe happening to you are less remote than you think. Federal Bureau of Investigation crime reports show that at least one burglary is committed every minute, adding up to a startling loss of more than $100 million a year. The tragic part is that this huge profit for the burglary business would not, as a rule, be possible except for carelessness on the part of the householders involved.

CASE AFTER CASE shows that the thief's best ally—the one who inadvertently made things easy for him—was the owner of the place robbed! So it may well be worth your while to consider here some of the common sense precautions that will render your home less convenient for robbers and thus reduce the odds in favor of its being added to the staggering crime statistics.

First and foremost, remember that since a burglar is quite apt to be lazy you can usually discourage him from choosing your place as the subject of his operations by making entry to it as difficult as possible. Thwart would-be intruders by using high quality locks that defy tampering.

Securely fasten all windows as well as exterior doors, not forgetting any in the basement and on the second floor; and keep ladders locked away where they won't be handy. If you must hide a door key for other members of the household, try to use a little originality in picking a hiding place.

You might just as well leave the door unlocked as to put the key under the mat or on the ledge over the door. Furthermore—unless you want to really endanger yourself to the burglary trade—don't leave a note in the mailbox for prospective guests telling where the key is hidden.

ANOTHER BIT of advice is to carry your house and automobile keys on separate rings. Unscrupulous parking lot attendants have been known to make copies of house keys to give to accomplices, along with corresponding addresses obtained by checking the registration slip in the car or the number of the license plate.

Keep in mind also that a sneak thief will tend to shun the lime-light. You can often foil his plans simply by leaving on lights by all entrances. One or two lights burning inside are further protection, since an unlit home can be enticing to a night-time prowler.

If your house is to be vacant for any length of time arrange for it to retain a "lived-in" look. Leave the shades open. Ask a neighbor to pick up your mail and any circulars that may accumulate at your door; also suspend newspaper deliveries.

PILED UP PAPERS are one of the first signals a housebreaker looks for to tell him the "coast is clear." Let the milkman know you are leaving; but don't use the note-in-the-bottle means of communication—that's giving a possible intruder a written invitation. It is wise to advise the police of your plans also, so they can be on the alert for any suspicious activity in your vicinity.

But wait until your return to tell the society editor of your local paper about your trip; thieves are quick to recognize the opportunity suggested by such an interesting news item. One final reminder—just in case you are victimized in spite of these precautions—keep a record of the serial numbers and a description of all your valuables to aid the police in tracing them through sales reports of second-hand dealers and pawnshop operators who may unwittingly help the burglar.

Local Firemen Get Pay Raises

Commissioners of the Lafayette Fire District voted Tuesday night to establish wage scales for the district's employees in keeping with the county's new salary schedules.

The action was in strict conformity to the recommendations of Fire Chief Robert Winkel, who asked that the local firemen be paid as well as firemen in the county fire districts.

Last month's budget hearings of the commissioners were highlighted by dissension from the firefighters, who claimed there was not sufficient money in the budget to cover the pay raise.

Although a number of minor details have still to be worked out, the commission's action means that Lafayette's firemen will be raised from $496 to $556 in their maximum salaries.

The commissioners also agreed to follow Winkel's recommendations in the hiring of two additional men for the department. Board Chairman C. R. Turner said the men probably would be hired within a few months.

Parties and People Make News for Local Youths

By ENID HENNESSY

Friday night was the night for the Piston Pacers party at John Riley's house in Sleepy Hollow. Diane Traverso and Kurt Lundblad, Vicki McCosker and Skip Nelson and Dave Rhoda and Connie Cook and about 10 or 12 other couples danced and swam.

Bob Davis and John Paul lived up the party by singing several songs that they had written. It was a pretty cool party and everyone seemed to have had a good time.

Pete Read is back from school in Europe, where he has been for the last two years. Pete has traveled through most of the European countries, and during his two-year stay attended school in Switzerland. Pete's back in Orinda now and is really looking great.

Joanne Scholberg is back from her 15-day vacation in Los Angeles. "Really had a ball," she reports about her stay at Corona Del Mar in the Southland.

Butch Guarnieri stopped playing his trumpet long enough last week to come down to Orinda to see a few of his old friends, especially a certain Kathy Shurtleff. Butch has been playing his horn at the Tahoe Tavern with a band since school let out.

Sylvia Bolman had a garden party a few weeks ago. Sylvia, who is going to make her debut this fall, entertained Sally Holabird, Vicki McCosker and several other girl friends and women for tea.

The first six days in July were probably the best days of the whole summer vacation for Kathy Stafford. Kathy spent them down in Fresno at Dick Allen's ranch and had a wonderful time.

Mike Calhoun and Rick Layne tried to hitchhike to Lake Tahoe last weekend. Whether they were successful or not I don't know.

Jerilyn Ganiats and Rollin Mack were among the couples who were entertained at Bob Davis' party Saturday night.

Diane Traverso felt just a little out of place bowling in Walnut Creek last Monday. Why? . . . She was wearing a muu muu.

Karen Stafford had a party for the sophomore crowd July 8. Kent Miller and Burnace Thraifkill, Bob Williams and Sue Fernstein and Robby Spott and Katy Jones were just three of the many couples who danced, talked and had a good time.

Skunk Shot By Officers Is Checked

County animal control officers are investigating the possibility that a skunk found at a local home last weekend may have been rabid.

The skunk was shot and killed Saturday night on the property of Pat Thomas, 3385 W. Terrace Way, proprietor of a service station at the corner of Mt. Diablo Boulevard and Oak Hill Road.

Thomas said the skunk had been fighting with his dog, a Maltese terrier, since Friday morning. The animal was shot in Thomas' garage.

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

The Inside Story

WHILE THE COUNTRY is convention-conscious, all caucuses are not of a political nature judging from the slew of social shenanigans among the representatives of Suburbia.

WINNING TICKET for a Summer Party . . . the one sponsored by Orinda Branch last Sat. nite at the Sunnybrook Dr., home of Sue & Ed Dougery in Lafayette. Through the rose-covered arbor & up the driveway to the pool & bathhouse at the rear of the house . . . Parking at a premium . . . Blonde Sue Dougery & her miniature blonde lass greeting guests at the pool gate.

Unconventional Caucus . . . Jay & Yvonne Meyer chatting w/Jackie & Bill Robinson. Jackie's halter sunback dress in gaudy yellow sprinkled w/dollar-size dots . . . White eyelet embroidery over ice-blue cotton for Kay McLaren, she & Jack abeam about their pack-up for Paris soon & a European short-see. Dr. Peter Patch in a white wool sport coat . . . The short red finglets of Marge Higgins' shapely head bobbing to & fro through the crowd. SHE serving trays of tasty canapes.

STUMPING for Children's Hospital . . . Allie & Lloyd Rasmussen under an umbrella at a table w/their dgtr. Peg Field, Hugh & Ruth MacIntyre . . . the Ned deLavegas, Fran & Kay Watson, Doug Knight, Bob Jurs, Warren & Pat Hagstrom more candidates for the tallest in the crowd . . . Pat Hagstrom's black cotton frock w/tiny spaghetti straps . . . Emily Smith's blue & silver sheath belted in silver kid.

A white organdy collar for Mad Benjamin, Cliff chatting w/Dorothy & Wayne Bentley . . . A real cool glen plaid number for Alf Clement. Jane (Neal) Archie discovering Auld friends. She has been living in Boston.

CANDLE CUPS on daisy mats afloat on the pool . . . Swimming centerfield, a graceful swan, collared & crowned w/marguerites . . . methinks it was Bill Windle's doings. THE SURPRISE of seeing heat lightning in the distance . . . it turned out to be a sputtering & crackling high voltage wire that had fallen down in the Red Mill's parking area. The 6-9 party lasting much later & winning hands down on the first ballot for another successful CHEB fundraiser.

AN EARLIER PARTY, a cozy little caucus over at the Cantrills on Van Tassel Lane. The People's Choice, of course, host Cec Cantrill sporting a kelly green string tie & solidly supported by his hostess wife Gen, their adorable miss Cathy & baseball-playing son Brian . . .

PERISCOPING the party . . . The Vern Huddlesons sampling the hot mushroom hors d'oeuvres . . . More than one meat ball, (delicious) for Hal Caldwell, Miles Sutcliffe & Frank Walker holding a conclave of their own . . . The Palmer Yorks jetting in from just across the street plans for Tahoe on their summer agenda . . . Betsy Kilburn in a brilliant striped cotton, she & Channing to arise at 5 the next morning for a horsey day at the Concord Horse Show . . . The Bud Kochers w/Canadian Capers on their mind & the Bill Leonards saying they'll commute to Squaw Valley again. Zach & Margorie Montgomery . . . The Don Ludwigs casing the rose garden. . . Brian's basketball in the bushes.

Slants on Party Strategy

Helen & Bert Kohler up from their yellow house down the street. (She is sister to gold Golf-gal Patty Berg). They have plans to go back home this summer to Minneapolis.

A LARGER FAMILY is the platform for the Hans Schnittlers who expect a 3rd child in Feb. . . . The Ernest Starkmans, on the go constantly, to keep w/tradition & an August stay at the Lair of the Bear . . . Nancy duPuis, Dorothy & George Parnham sitting on the table having a pow-wow over the potato-chip & dip bowl . . . Alabaman Jim Warren trying on George's dapper houndtooth jacket . . . Vi Caldwell cool in yellow cotton. The Harl Tylers as well as the host & hostess, mentioning they'll visit their son at Camp Wallace Alexander on the Feather River this wknd.

THE BRIGHT LIGHTS of Las Vegas will attract Howard & Dottie Gardiner . . . Nan & Tom Elmore, the Jim Seamans served by Cathy Cantrill in a pink bouffant party dress.

NOMINATED for the most unusual marked cat was the uninvited guest that turned up having followed the Frank Walkers . . . a black & white kitty w/odd arrow markings casually crashed the party 'til Cec put the pussycat over the fence & into someone ELSE'S backyard . . . Mel & Dorothy Nickerson w/Sleepy Hollow swim-team talk.

AND TALK ABOUT the grass roots movement . . . plenty of those at the party when high-heeled ladies shed their shoes to gambol barefooted across the green lawn. (Does ANYTHING honestly match the treat-of cool green grass 'neath swollen feet?)

THE DELEGATES to the Sleepy Hollow caucus breaking up around nine . . . Ed & Dorothy Turk, who'll take their young son to Europe in September . . . the Dan Carters . . . Bill & Jewel Witter, erstwhile Orindans who were over from Belvedere. Most of the guests going on to Casa O, all present & accounted for . . .

PARTY P. S. . . . Fran Seaman is selling the new 50-star flag for the Orinda Republican Women . . . She urges you (we do too) to "buy one & fly one"—complete w/lanyard, flagpole, size 3x5, $3.75 . . . Call CL 4-5337.

A SURPRISE MOVE was what Elcey & Kerry Keresey & Phyllis & Dick Paltenghi based their party strategy on last Saturday. Laden w/casseroles & garden gifts, some twenty friends of Marilyn & Phil Joy arrived at on the threshold of their new Meadow View Rd. home to holler Surprise! The Joys were still readying to leave for the Keresseys which is how the party was arranged, when the caravan of cars met just around the corner from the new home.

Keepers of the Top Drawer Secret were Peter & Kay Ratcliff, Jim & Darlene Byers, Marilyn & George Limpke & Cary & Bob Niebel . . . More of those making secret maneuvers were Dee & Bill Seifert, Virginia & Jay Sponberg (he's cousin of Marilyn Joy), Marge & Clem Ford & Carolee & E. F. Neilsen, all of Orinda. Over from Marin was Marilyn's brother Chuck & his wife Gloria Sponberg as well as both Marilyn's & Phil's mamas who joined in the housewarming fun.

GIVE GRANDMA A HAND . . . that being Charlie Nelson's mother, Mrs. William Nelson, recently returned to Lancaster, Pa. . . . The little lady who leads a quiet life had "the time of her life" starting when she jetted out to take over for Mollie & Charlie who were Mexico-bound for the Int'l. Mtg. of Chemical Engrs. . . . While the Nelsons were gone, Grandma took care of the house & garden, children & animals . . . The dog broke its leg, the cat gave birth to eight kittens, the 0 camellias needed constant watering but busy grandma's BIG concern was not her own isolation w/these problems (the end of Hacienda Rd. in the woods) but a worry about The Boyds' "last man on earth" survival! Now that Gram's back in her city apt, childless, petless & problemless, hope Mollie & Charles keep her posted w/the Boyds' daily doings.

Not All Present & Accounted for . . .

STRANGE-sounding names of far-away places . . . The Nelsons, South of the Border for the first Mexican Institute's Int'l Congress of chemical engineers, visited such fascinating places as Guadalajara, Taxco, Oaxaco & Paracho, the latter the "home of the guitar."

AT THE POOL sharing supper sandwiches & a swim in the cool of the evening were the Lyle Yorks & the Richard Brodericks . . . Lyle & his pretty blonde German wife Heidi just returned from the land of the Luau & Leis . . . while Lois & her medic husband were sporting sizeable flippers & swim masks, part of the skindiving equipment they wore while filming & fishing Barracuda in the Nassau waters.

Cinders & Bob McFarland are sending postals from Rome & Paris . . . & better than long-distance letters, Jim & Caroline Reid are home AGAIN from a long residence in Italy & Spain . . . full of foreign news for their old friends.

Gene & Cay Snover & their offspring are enjoying a Tahoe stay w/Betty & Don Larue who are at the Lake for 6 wks. . . . Lois & Ger Pixley are home after two wks. of waterskiing the same waters. Before their dgtr. Marcia headed for NY & a Knickerbocker holiday, Chris & Bill Lang enjoyed a busy visit w/her here . . . Marcia is now in Manhattan seeing ALL the shows, going ALL the places.

Another Native Orindan turned Manhattanite is Jim Jacobus, son of the Mel Jacobuses & brother of Joan Pellissier . . . Two recent family parties served to honor & introduce Jimmie's fiancée Lucille Libbon who flew out from the East for the felicitations.

THE ANDY HARTANOVCS can hold hands in the quietude for a short time w/their youngsters all off to different places, their dgtrs. on the fabulous European tour w/John Thune's YMCA group of young gadders (3 wks. in Russia), Drew off to Scout Camp & Paul off on a trip.

PARK POOL SIGHTS . . . At the Sunday meet w/Diablo CC,

Bill Cooper breaking his own record in the breast stroke w/a new time 15.16 . . . Marge Roth splashing in the waters w/her precious pin-up girl Penny . . . Ann Cunningham playing a game of Ping Pong w/her boy, she later changing into a striking striped dress, red on one side, blue on the other, centered w/white, like a Fourth of July "popper", a gay glad-rag she picked at the Riviera in Las Vegas.

BOBBIE VAN SICKLE making w/a real meal at the pool, the tantalizing fragrance of meat loaf & potatoes baking in the oven . . . Art Henry on the mend, only a slight limp to his leg that luckily survived a bad smashing . . .

NOTICE ON POOL Bulletin Board—"LOST"—One Tortoise. In the vicinity of the pool. Call the Knopfs . . . (I'll call ANYBODY if one lands in MY bathing suit!)

STUDY in the shade . . . Cozily ensconced in the adirondack chair, Barbara Graber brushing up on her aeronautics lore . . . This fly-girl forced down recently in Tracy when her plane gave off w/a klump-klunk noise . . . The level-headed lady landing in a lonely airport where only a single soul on duty was a cripple & could offer no help w/her ailing plane. Hot, tired, dusty & weary, she called her instructor & husband, to await their help, rummaged through her pockets & gleefully turned up two nickels. Which did her no good. The coke machine w/ONE lukewarm coke left, only took DIMEs & nobody around had any change. Undismayed, our Barbara did a Dr. Moore . . . Found a single shady tree to rest under & sat munching on blades of grass, Alas! Poor Lass!

From under our Sun Hat . . . Wirtabel Harris down for a late dunking . . . Jerry Cullen stroking smoothly across the pool . . . (WHAT wind!) The George Loshbaughs toweling themselves dry . . . Brown as berries, that Native Family, the Bill Brays . . .

LIFEGUARD Don Anderson's dgtr. tiny blonde Chubbikins chasing a skinny tabby cat under the picnic table . . .

5:30 FAREWELLS at the Pied. Community Center in the gray morning for many mothers & Dads who bid their boys off to Wallace Alexander Scout Camp . . . Bill Lee, Bill Gilmore, Stan Hunn & Barclay Simpson in a grey-flannel huddle . . . Libby Brock waving madly at Jim's bus . . . Kit Newman, Irma Lee, the Fred Twinings more in the sleepy-eyed group. Bill Loughman, Greg Filice, Mike Vedder, Steve Douglas, Doug Fastabend more of the local boys going up for a Wonderful Time!

Christian Science

How scientific prayer leads to a clearer understanding of Truth will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.

Christian Science churches in this area are located at 22 Orinda highway, Orinda; 1437 Locust Street, Walnut Creek; and in Concord at the corner of Grant and Park Streets.

Christian Science Society of Pleasant Hill holds its services at Kahrs Avenue and Boyd Road, Pleasant Hill, and Lafayette meets at 3422 Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

The Lesson-Sermon on "Truth" will include the following passages from the Bible (Luke 11:13): "If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent? . . . If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give him the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?"

The importance of prayer is also emphasized in readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, including the following (11:27-31): "Prayer cannot change the unalterable Truth, nor can prayer alone give us an understanding of Truth; but prayer, coupled with a fervent habitual desire to know and do the will of God, will bring us into all Truth."

Surburban Bible

County Accepts New Vaca Canyon Culvert Project

Supervisor Mel F. Nielsen announced today that the County Board of Supervisors accepted as complete the contract with O. C. Jones and Sons of Berkeley, for construction of a culvert under Alhambra Valley Road at the entrance to Vaca Canyon, 1.9 miles west of Reliez Valley Road.

The project involved installation of 144 feet of 84-inch diameter reinforced concrete pipe to replace an inadequate culvert. Warped wingwalls were constructed at the culvert entrance to improve hydraulic efficiency and increase capacity to handle flood flows.

The culvert was installed on a fairly flat slope to reduce the amount of excavation. This resulted in a nine-foot drop from the outlet end of the culvert to the creek channel. A special structure was built to accomplish the transition and reduce the velocity of culvert discharge to eliminate creek bank erosion.

A restricted location in the narrow canyon required installation of the culvert pipe in two stages and construction of detours.

The contract was completed on schedule at a total cost of $29,000.

Lights Go Out at Local Night Spot

Visitors to the Red Mill, formerly El Nido, were treated to an extra attraction Saturday night when all of the lights in the bar and restaurant suddenly went out.

The blackout was caused by the falling of a hot wire—the main electrical lead-in to the night spot. When the wire fell it began jumping—and causing sparks—throughout the establishment's parking lot.

We've Got The Cake; We Can Eat Some of it, Too!

Believe it or not, the publisher's column, "Under The Sun," which you will find on the opposite side of this page, and these editorials are written quite independently.

Occasionally there is good reason for commenting on the same subject, both in an editorial and a column (for instance, at election time), but generally both areas are treated independently.

However, this week, it just so happens that the column was written just before one of our front page banner stories was written. Consequently, the editorial on that subject and Mr. Silverman's column complement each other.

HE IS TALKING about the wonderful time you can have vacationing right here at home.

And we're talking (editorially, of course), about the even more wonderful time you could have if you had the facilities of the East Bay Municipal Utility District Reservoirs at your fingertips.

Well, it's finally happened! It has been officially recommended to the district that the Lafayette, Chabot and Briones Valley reservoirs be developed for recreational purposes.

Now all of these reservoirs are within easy reach of Central Contra Costa residents. Briones isn't built yet, but that is not too far in the future. Incidentally, now would be the time to consider recreational facilities at the reservoir, while construction equipment is there and available.

THERE SEEMS to be general agreement between members of the committee and EBMUD officers that the reservoirs would be excellent for the purposes of boating and picnicking along the shores, but would not be suitable for swimming.

Well, hurrah! The Sun, editorially, has been suggesting just this for years!

We have deep fears, however, that this will be "just another committee report" and will lie in the files gathering dust.

The water is there. The precedent is there. (Pardee reservoir is being used for recreational purposes right now, and that's in EBMUD, too!)

The benefits to the area as a whole, were these reservoirs opened for recreation, would be fantastic. We are already blessed with Mt. Diablo State Park, and the wonderful water areas around Bethel Island, but this is right in our own back yard.

CAN YOU IMAGINE sailing in the San Pablo Reservoir? Miles of beautiful, sheltered water, which would provide one of the most beautiful boating areas in the country.

And of course, if it were stocked with fish...

But nothing can be done until the powers that be at EBMUD see fit to do it. We hope that they see the light, because this could be one of the best public relations programs the company ever offered.

Actually the company would only be permitting you to use what you already own—because it is a municipal district and is subsidized by your taxes.

WE HAVE NO quarrel that the water must be kept absolutely safe, and we wouldn't think of changing the quality of it for the world... because it is some of the best water in the country.

But we feel that we can have our cake and eat most of it too. We can preserve the standards of the water and provide happy recreation for the thousands of area residents who would flock to use the facilities.

Congratulations to the committee which recommended this to EBMUD. It is just an inching step in the right direction, but we're moving, anyway.

Anyone for boating next summer?

Letters We Can All Do Without This Summer

By MARIE MONAHAN

Dearest Friends;

Can't TELL you how much we enjoyed those two weeks with you. Judy left her white sweater, her pink petticoat & tennis shoes & Bill's transistor radio MUST be around there SOMEWHERE! When you send these, just tuck John's pipe inside. He left it on the mantle that morning.

Thanks again.

Dear Daughter;

Would you believe it? GRANDPA was ALL the way HOME before he missed his new dentures. He says he took them out SOMEPLACE in the garden. Please wrap them carefully & air express!

All Our Love,

Dear Mrs. M...

Enclosed is your daughter's orthodontic retainer. The Counselor is sure it is hers since she left it on the dining room table EVERY day.

Camp Happy Hollow.

Dear, DEAR Neighbors;

Having a wonderful time & wish you were here. But since you aren't & we've decided to stay on for the Summer Olympics, would you mind TERRIBLY picking up our precious baby at the VETS? She'll be fine. Just buy a case of canned horse meat & charge it to us.

Thinking of you,

DEAR MOM—

Camp is great. Chow good. I forgot to pack the towels & wash cloths. I could stay here forever. I miss you.

Your Son.

Dear Old Chum!

MARVELOUS to see you after those umpteen years! Thanks for letting me use your charge accounts when I ran out of money. Oh, all those darling things I brought home! Let me know what the tab is when you get the bills & I'll send a check. I leave for Nassau tomorrow. You haven't changed a bit. Have I?

Affectionately,

Dear California Relatives;

Well, THIS will surprise you! We are finally making that cross-country trip & expect to land in your neck of the woods about the first of August. We have the baby with us & the kids are all DYING to see their Western kith & kin. PLEASE don't stay home on our account if you have other plans. Can hardly wait... What a surprise, eh?

Till then...

Dear friends;

We finally got a room at the Lodge... the place is JAMMED! You were so nice to let us take your tent, but John swears there is a part missing. Maybe if your husband looked in the garage... for a center pole.

Wearily,

To Elect, or Appoint...

Schools are important business—and if you look at your tax bill, you'll know that schools are an expensive business.

Therefore, it would behoove all of us to do anything in our power to see that our schools run as efficiently and economically as possible.

One person in the county, who has a real effect on our school districts, is the County Superintendent of Schools. At present this post is an elective post, and it is obvious that this is not a necessary procedure.

County Superintendent of Schools Floyd Marchus himself has urged that the job become appointive, rather than elective.

THE CONTRA COSTA County Grand Jury concurred. The jury's education committee said, "The superintendent of schools should be determined by the county board of education rather than by election of all the voters who, in the ordinary course of events, would not be informed as to the educational qualifications of those running for the office."

And Marchus commented: "The board (county board of education) could set up standards and then search universities and colleges all over the country for nominees."

"Now, the job is restricted to those in this county who want to run for it."

PREVIOUS TO THE recommendations of the 1959-60 grand jury, the 1958-

59 grand jury had suggested the same thing, and included also the recommendation that the sheriff's post be appointive.

Obviously our county schools can use the guidance of a qualified and dedicated superintendent of schools. Dr. Marchus is certainly both, and would make a good appointee. The suggestion that this office become appointive is in no way a reflection on him.

But it is senseless to put this position on the ballot when most people are totally unaware of the qualifications necessary for the job, or even, except in the broadest terms, what the county superintendent does.

THIS CAN HAVE A real effect on your pocketbook. Although the cost of the election may not be much, because it is just another item on an already crowded ballot every four years, it still costs many man-hours of labor.

But most of all, the job itself is important. By putting the superintendent under the direct control of the county board, a closer relationship can be established, and in turn, your individual school district will benefit.

And any benefit on that level is bound to be reflected in either a better education for your children at the same costs, or a reduction in costs.

Clearly, we can't lose by making the position appointive, and our legislators in Sacramento should take the proper action to see that it is done.

The Staff Corner Journey to '35

In our communities so near Oakland and San Francisco, we are likely to take "progress" for granted, and rightly so.

Times are changing, and we are changing with the times. Few of us were here in say, 1935, and those who were find it difficult to explain what it was like then, or even recall the charm of the by-gone hamlet life.

And so I'd expected to find a somewhat similar situation driving the short distance from Omaha, Nebraska, my home town, to Tabor, Iowa, one-time residence of my maternal grandparents, where I had spent many summer weeks as a seven-year-old boy.

BUT TABOR'S MAIN street told me that a quarter of a century had made only a slight difference.

The cars were of recent vintage, of course. But the store front hadn't changed much. The Tabor Cafe, the little movie house and the "Brick Inn" stood as they had in 1935 when our parents left my sister and me for six weeks with the elder Lairds, and departed for a much needed vacation.

Having a seven-year-old's memory for appearances but not directions, I stopped at the cafe for directions.

"Which way to the Laird home?"

The counterman paused. "Which Laird?"

"Ah, Porter Laird. He was my grandfather."

"OH, YOU MEAN old Port Laird's home. To that corner, turn right, go three blocks, turn left and you're there."

This was a commonplace enough conversation, except my grandfather had died in 1935, the year of our visit, and the old home had for more than a decade been occupied by other people. And the counterman looked like a young fellow.

This was also fair notice that the road to the house would be the same white gravel, the home the same, except painted with a new coat of white. And the rickety old garage still stood there—just as rickety, but not more so.

The field of corn next door was the same. All that was missing was the tire which had been suspended from a tree branch for swinging purposes.

THE DIRT ROAD to Aunt Susie's house a half mile away was unchanged. Deeply rutted, unpassable in the winter-time for motorists.

Her home had the same super-neat, austere interior. Aunt Susie was no longer 60 years old. She was 85. But she looked the same, except for a surprised expression. She didn't recognize me as I had given no warning of my arrival.

Our discussion was interrupted once when a friend called by phone to tell about her recent operation.

Aunt Susie remembered my little dog. We didn't discuss current affairs. Such subjects seemed far away. I excused myself after a while, for this was the last day of my annual vacation, and preparations had to be made.

THE RETURN TO OMAHA was a contrast. Council Bluffs, neighboring, is growing every day.

And Omaha, that headquarters for beef-on-the-hoof and railroad cars, is booming.

In Omaha, you can confidently talk about progress and such. The year 1935 is a long time ago.

Greetings, Dear Neighbor!

Howdy, Neighbor!

You don't have to come from Texas to give, or receive a friendly greeting like that.

As a matter of fact, we have a reputation for being pretty friendly people right here in Contra Costa County.

But, alas, sometimes we forget.

STOP AND THINK for a minute. Do you have any new neighbors on your block? Are these the people you've been meaning to say hello to, but just haven't gotten around to greeting?

We would like to suggest a revolutionary concept in community relations.

We offer you the opportunity to meet and greet your neighbor!

IN THESE DAYS of easy, fast travel, many people find themselves transferred from area to area, and sometimes these families are totally cut off from any personal contact with friends and relatives. Under these circumstances a friendly word can mean all the difference between a wonderful place in which to live, and "just another area."

So how about it? Got a special greeting for your neighbors?

Under The Sun Tell the Weeds to Stop Growing--Hop Into a Car!

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

Are you able to "vacation in the back yard" — even for a day?

You know, instead of going somewhere you say, "Let's relax in the patio, pretend we're at a resort and just do nothing."

I now find myself on the chaise lounge, refreshments in hand, attired in comfortable, old Bermudas. My isn't this wonderful! I lift my eyes, aiming for the beautiful hills — but on their way up, my relaxing eyes note that the petunias are wilting.

Those darn Juniper

I look the other way. But the weeds have poked through Juniper and are crying to be pulled.

I move the chaise to the back area, and start searching for the lovely, relaxing sky. But instead, I see some very dry weeds not very far from the often-used incinerator.

I am fighting. Fighting! Fighting! To heck with relaxing at home. Since today has been earmarked for "relaxing with family," I huddle with Eleanor.

The next scene finds the Silverman family in car — and off to adventure.

The Olds decides

We have decided to let the car go where it wants, And the merry Olds says, "Why don't you folks adventure in other parts of the county. Let's see what's there."

The Olds turns up Golf Links Road in Pleasant Hill and apparently has a desire for higher education. It stops at Diablo College and we enjoy a walk around. The new science building is most interesting.

Then, on to Buchanan Field, where the airplanes are always fascinating.

We turn up Arnold Industrial Highway toward Pittsburg. (Another way is to Martinez; then to Port Chicago, seeing the oil refineries along the way.)

Pittsburg and Antioch are fascinating to our youth of suburbia — U.S. Steel, Consolidated Can, Shell Chemical, Fireboard, P.G.E. steam plants, to name just a few.

Boats and crab cocktail

We inspected the yachts, big and small, at Pittsburg harbor and enjoyed crab cocktails on the dock. Both towns are certainly different than Central Contra Costa County and worthwhile visiting.

In contrast to heavy industry are the farm and dairy lands around Oakley and Brentwood. Acres upon acres of beautiful country. Perhaps you can pick some fruit! Meanwhile, we drive to Bethel Island. Boats and harbors all over the place. It's a fast-developing recreation area.

From Brentwood, we start on another road home — through the long canyon areas into Clayton, skirting Concord, through Ygnacio Valley to Walnut Creek. This entire stretch is different. Small mountains, creeks, rolling hills, open fields — a most interesting trip.

Here's a check list

Have you explored these and other parts of the county?

A few other suggestions: hiking in the Moraga hills, ride over and back on the Martinez-Benicia ferry, picnic or camping on Mt. Diablo, boating and fishing on the Sacramento River, ours of the various county offices (not Saturdays or holidays), see the Redwoods at Canyon, visit Tilden and other regional parks (of Alameda-Contra Costa Counties), drive from Lafayette through Briones Valley to Orinda or through Alhambra Valley.

More ideas: visit John Muir's home near Martinez, take the river road from Martinez to Crockett, on to Richmond and across the San Rafael-Richmond Bridge, drive through beautiful San Ramon Valley to Danville and on to Dublin, then visit the Livermore area.

There are a million ideas — if only the weeds in the garden would cooperate!

Here's a Thought...

Car Pools Have Their Own Set of Rules for the Road

By CONNIE PIKE

The car pool is the backbone of suburbia. For the men, that morning ride to work has replaced the old cracker-barrel discussion, and provides their only opportunity to air opinions on how to run a business, rid your lawn of moths and whose son is the best swimmer.

Getting into a car pool is not easy. You, your family and your car all must pass a rigid inspection. Your work hours must be within 10 minutes of the others', and your location within a block. Your car must be a four-door sedan—long-legged men can't fit into a small car, and a two-door car makes it hard to get in and out when there are only seconds to spare.

IN THE EARLY stages of a new pool, its members maintain a good deal of decorum—they are prompt, clean-shaven and well-fed. A little later they are not so prompt, they shave and tie their shoes in the car and bring an eye-opening cup of coffee with them.

They start trading anecdotes about their wives. Still later, when they have been granted tenure, they just sleep, all except the driver. Occasionally he sleeps, too, but if the others find out they expel him.

A two-thirds majority is required to blackball. WOMEN riders compound things. All wives concerned call on an applicant to see whether she might be a corrupting influence, and of a dozen, only one of them might pass inspection. The rest will soon find it convenient to ride the bus.

It falls to the wives, too, to clear out items left in the car. Newspapers and other expendables can be thrown away, but they must trace down by telephone the owners of handkerchiefs, electric razors and used coffee cups. Any earnings found belong to the finder.

Once in a pool, it's difficult to get out and you should have an air-tight alibi. Such as, you have to drive your mother-in-law to town every morning for her cha-cha lesson. That is, if you don't want to cause bad feeling.

A MAN'S DRIVING may be positively hair-graying, but when he narrowly misses another car the most you can politely say is, "Nice try."

The only real reason for leaving the pool is a job transfer.

One man left ours for this reason. His name was Jim and he kept the other men in stitches describing how his wife looked in her flannel nightie and with her hair pinned up.

They say she found out about it. Anyway, last year he moved to New York, where I understand he takes to subway.

Mrs. Milton Giulieri Helps Many Homemaker, Teacher, She Serves in Many Fields

By JEAN JERNIGAN

"It doesn't seem as though I am doing very much, but I'm always busy," was the near breathless remark of Mrs. Milton Giulieri of 1822 Alvarado Avenue, Walnut Creek, when she was finally located for an interview.

This active lady, who "does dressmaking in between babies," is a homemaker supreme, teacher, craft supervisor, dressmaker, publicity chairman, and a past president deeply interested in the Diablo Valley Home Economics and Homemaking Association.

"I GUESS I have always been interested in home economics," she recalled, and I became quite inspired by a home economics teacher in high school and decided then that this was what I wanted to do."

Jane Giulieri earned her B. A. degree in home economics at Humboldt State College. She met her husband Milton at school in Humboldt. He went to serve with the Marine Corps for four years and she attended college. After they were married, he was employed in this area by the Bank of America and she taught at San Ramon High School for two and a half years.

She has also taught at the Palmer School and is working this summer for the school as Craft Work Supervisor. The Giulieris have lived in Walnut Creek for nine years and they have all been busy ones for Jane Giulieri.

WORKING WITH the Immaculata Guild for six years, she has served as a guild officer, publicity chairman, and fashion show coordinator. "I really loved my work with the girls in the fashion show," she remarked.

"It is inspiring to find out how to be of some service to the community, and I thoroughly enjoy my work with the guild and with the American Legion Auxiliary."

Mrs. Giulieri's deepest interest at the present is with the Diablo Valley Homemaking and Economics Association. "Working with high school girls to inform them of the opportunities and interest in this field is most rewarding," she said.

As the parents of a young family, Lorna, 5 and Marty, 2, the Giulieris have most of their fun at home. "We like to garden and we do lots of barbecuing," she stated. "We travel north and south on weekends to visit our families, but we're really the 'home type.'"

AS A DRESSMAKER, Mrs. Giulieri does alterations and re-styling as well as making clothes from "scratch." Asked if she made her children's clothes, she laughed and said, "I really would like to, but I never seem to have time."

This summer the family is going to take their first venture at camping. Going along on the trip will undoubtedly be their pet Shetland Collie, Pixie.

nie; outside sentinel, Austin Henshaw; senior past president, Kenneth Powlesland.

Social hour will follow with refreshments. Installation committee will be led by Mr. and Mrs. Burke Woodward and Norman Fratzke.

ANXIOUS TO HELP are Lori, 6, and Marty, 2, as their mother, Mrs. Milton Giulieri, pursues her dressmaking bent. This is the Sun's Feature Lady's only bent. The community benefits from her active life. — Sun photo by Bob Rush.

On the Lighter Side!

By LIZ FOLLIARD
CL 4-5667

The little fella who carries the bow and arrows has been busy in Orinda this month. Two well known and popular long-time residents of our little village have just changed their names.

Mrs. Ed. (Midge) Dorresten is now Mrs. Kenneth Anderson. And Mrs. William (Irene) Wilson will be signing the name of Mrs. Ernest Marquardson.

Both couples will continue to live in Orinda. Midge and Irene are active members of the Orinda Garden Club and other local activities.

From the Tanager Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center comes some news of their members. Vangie and Dwight Dickinson entertained a cocktail party and barbecue over the Fourth of July weekend in honor of Wayne Hardin, the Navy football coach.

Wayne was Dwight's guest and partner in the Orinda Country Club Invitational Golf Tournament. No information was submitted as to how the team fared in said tournament.

Among the invited guests at the party were Mr. and Mrs. Phil Woolpert, the ex-coach of the University of San Francisco basketball team. Vi and Harold Caldwell and their children Carolyn and Bill, have just returned from Lake Tahoe where they were the house guests of Barbara and Verne Murray.

The Murrys and children Delanne, Kathy, Tad and Laura are residents of Lafayette. Chief recreation during this happy vacation was water skiing which was thoroughly enjoyed by one and all.

Members of the Lark Unit have been awandering lately. President Marge Ageno and her family just returned from a wonderful two weeks vacation in Hawaii. The John Helms and William Banks joined forces for a rugged camping trip into the backwoods near Lake Shasta. Mary (Mrs. Sherman) Sibley and family spent a week at Wonder Valley Dude Ranch.

Ginny and Bill Simpson and "Kinder" spent 10 days at Newport Beach in Southern California. Ann Kritscher and spouse Andrew, are now in Europe for a six week's vacation.

Mr. Kritscher's mother accompanied them on their European jaunt. Caroline Packard and her children had a fine vacation recently up in Idaho. Helen Trahan and family went home to Benson Minnesota for a three week's stay while her husband Ken, was in jet training school for United Airlines.

Another thrilling European trip was that taken by Al and Elaine Scollard of Orinda. Al is an executive with Safeway and Elaine is active in Dolores Branch of Providence Hospital and also sings with the fine choir of Santa Maria Church. The Scollards were accompanied on their month long trip by another couple who are Menlo Park residents.

Bradley Kenneth Gaston Weds Patricia Laverty

Double ring ceremonies recently united in marriage Patricia Frances Laverty and Bradley Kenneth Gaston of Walnut Creek, who repeated vows at Carmel Mission.

After the 11 a.m. nuptials a wedding breakfast was held at the Seventeen Mile Drive home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gholson, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom.

For her wedding the bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Laverty, donned a street length white, silk sheath with short sleeves. She wore a short white veil and white accessories. She carried a prayer book, covered with white orchids and streamers of Stephanotis.

Mrs. Wesley Ackley, her sister's only attendant, wore a full skirted, sleeveless toast frock and carried a nosegay of gold carnations.

Roger Duncan was best man, and guests were escorted by Jeffrey Gholson.

A beige linen jacket dress was worn by the bride's mother. The mother of the bridegroom was in a gray-white three-piece linen suit.

The bride is an alumna of Las Lomas High School and, until her marriage, was secretary to the planning director of the City of Walnut Creek.

The benedict, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Gaston, graduated from Las Lomas High School and Diablo Valley College.

The newlyweds will make their home in Monroe, Michigan for the next year and a half, while Brad completes his army service.

Before the June 11 wedding the bride was honored at two showers, one given by Mrs. David Danfelt and one given by Mrs. Ackley.

They flew jet to Paris, where they spent four days, doing the usual sight-seeing and night-clubbing. Then they rented a Citroen and drove to the South and East of Paris, visiting Switzerland, South Germany, and Austria, their route taking them through the awe-inspiring Swiss and Bavarian Alps.

They visited Geneva and Oberammergau but it was too early to be able to see the play. From Innsbruck they drove over the Brenner Pass to Italy and stopped in Venice, Florence and Perugia.

This city is where those fine Luisa Spagnoli sweaters are made but Elaine said she did not purchase any because all the best and most fashionable models are exported. Thence on to Rome where they spent three days. One highlight of the whole trip was their audience with the Pope while in Rome. From here they drove up the Mediterranean to Genoa, Pisa and Nice where they left the car.

They visited Our Lady of Lourdes then went over the Pyrenees by train to Portugal. After a short stay in Lisbon they flew back to the U.S.A. and Orinda.

Christian Women to Convene

The Christian Women's Club, Contra Costa Branch, joined with other branches in the Bay Area to prepare for the national convention in San Francisco, today through Monday.

Mrs. Charles D. Sholty of Pleasant Hill, branch chairman, was hostess recently to members of the telephone committee as she introduced national representatives, the Misses Helen Nichols and Alice Kreiner of Kansas City, Missouri, who assisted in pre-conference planning.

A reception honoring the national personnel, which will be the initial session today at the Whitcomb Hotel across the Bay, will also give local members an opportunity to meet women from other branches of the Christian Business and Professional Women's Councils and the Christian Women's Clubs of America who will be attending from across the nation.

Following morning business sessions there will be afternoon sightseeing tours and evening programs of keen interest. The banquet tomorrow evening in the Crystal ballroom, for which there are 1000 reservations, will be the highlight of the conference.

The whitetail deer, according to the National Automobile Club, is the most widely known and hunted big game animal in North America.

Bigger Phone Book Distributed

A bigger phone book with more listings and more pages than ever, will come to local homes and businesses this week.

Pacific Telephone Manager H. C. Greenhalgh announced that 105,500 volumes—166 tons worth—of the 1960 Contra Costa County directory will be distributed this week.

Greenhalgh said that the book's alphabetical section is bigger than last year's by 5123 listings, for a total of 75,272 listings.

In terms of pages this amounts to an increase of 16 for a total of 208 of the white pages.

The "Yellow Pages" classified section has also kept pace, with business growth in the area and has grown by 56 pages. There are 592 classified pages this year.

The cover illustration on the 1960 directory features a view of Mt. Diablo, the highest point in Contra Costa County.

Greenhalgh drew attention of subscribers to the directory's important opening pages which have a new look, using illustration.

The introductory pages show police and fire department emergency numbers as well as information on telephone service.

Your Garden Foliage Color Can Be Satisfying, Permanent

Color is the main goal of every gardener and achieving it affords him no little satisfaction. But all too often, the gardener relies on bloom alone to attain his goal, paying scant heed to the numerous possibilities for using colorful foliage.

If you are guilty of such tactics, the California Association of Nurserymen has a word for you. C.A.N. nurseries point out that while bloom may be satisfying in itself, it can be much more so in combination with foliage color. And the color that derives from foliage is more permanent. It carries the garden during those in-between-bloom times.

BEFORE plunging further into such a thesis, let it be stated that the abundance of foliage in any designed private gardens. Lay out a garden plan of your own and garden should be green. We have conditioned ourselves to associate green with the out-of-doors, and we are refreshed by the association. But too much green can lead to monotony.

Consider other possibilities: The grays and yellows and reds-to-purples which stand out in garden shows and in so many well-"color" in the areas you could change.

First, however, visit a local C.A.N. nursery and check the colors with which you can work. Pay special attention to grays and silver-grays such as English Lavender, Dusty Miller, Bush Germander, and the compact Buch Morning Glory. These and many others pay a dividend in bloom also.

NEXT LOOK for shrubs whose foliage contrasts with the gray (what color doesn't?). Reddish colors are excellent here. Dwarf Japanese Maples are ideal in even the smallest gardens, and their larger counterparts may be added as space permits. Purple Leaf Plums are good backdrops and lavish in their spring bloom.

There are yellow and near white tones to be found in other shrubs and worked in as your taste dictates. There are no colors that "clash" when properly used—or when they please you.

Shade Can Be Planted Whenever It's Thought Of

It's amazing the number of people who arrive at mid-summer and realize how badly their garden needs shade. And it's even more amazing how many of them put off planting it until winter, only to forget it then because they don't need shade at the time.

We'd like to suggest that the time to plant shade is when you think of it. And if that time is now, there's no need waiting for bare root season.

A CHECK with the California Association of Nurserymen indicates that your choice of material is abundant right now. They have a large assortment of trees growing in containers that can be planted in your yard today.

When you've agreed to this, it remains only to determine which tree is for you—or, better, for your garden. The gardener must choose between the unchanging shade of an evergreen and the seasonal product of a deciduous tree.

If you want all the winter light you can get, the latter is an obvious choice. So is it when you would intensify the seasonal change with bare branches. This can be a definite consideration with gardeners who feel the lack of change in California's mild winter climate.

CHECK WITH the local C.A.N. member before you plant a tree.

Cut Delphinia, Feed and Water For Next Bloom

Here is the gardener's checklist for this week:

Cut faded delphinium spikes about six or eight inches above the ground, feed and water for that second (or third) bloom.

Support and tie tomato plants to keep the crop off the ground.

Keep fuchsias and begonias in full bloom with frequent feedings. Every other week is not too much for these.

A plant's purpose is to bloom and set seed so as to propagate itself. Keep the blooms picked and most plants will keep trying by growing more flowers.

Replace fading annuals as soon as they fail to carry their color load. No need waiting to the very last bloom.

Immunization Clinic Will Be Wednesday

The next County Health Department immunization clinic for the Walnut Creek area will be held at the Veterans Memorial Hall, 1250 Locust Street, from 2 to 4:45 p.m., on Wednesday.

They are for all persons who have difficulty obtaining these services privately.

Immunizations are best secured from one's own private physician who keeps permanent records of all services.

Polio vaccinations, immunizations for diphtheria-tetanus, whooping cough and smallpox are available.

However, those 13 years of age and under must be accompanied by a parent or guardian, and those 14 to 21 must have a Health Department consent form signed by their parent or guardian.

Selection of College Books Is Questioned

The Contra Costa Junior College District trustees have been approving the annual book lists for years without knowing the contents of the volumes, and this may lead to unfortunate results, Trustee William Kretzmer said at a meeting this week.

This led to Superintendent Drummond McCune's comment that some books approved in the past would not get his approval, but he would not name them.

The board did not delve into any method for avoiding bad selections.

The board also approved the 1960-61 budget of $4,856,955, which is higher than the 1959-60 budget of $4,131,903.

The tax rate will be 41.7 cents per $100 assessed valuation, an increase of 5.1 cents.

This will operate the Diablo Valley College in Concord and Contra Costa College in San Pablo.

Whitehouse Gets New Sales Post

The appointment of John Whitehouse to the sales staff of McKinney Manufacturing Company, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, producer of builders' hardware, has been announced by W. R. Julius Jr., McKinney vice president-sales.

Whitehouse has been assigned to the West Coast Regional Sales Office, 560 Ninth Street, San Francisco, which operates as service headquarters for McKinney accounts in California, Washington, Oregon, Arizona, Nevada, Utah, Montana, Alaska, and Hawaii, under the direction of Clark Van Housen, West Coast regional sales manager.

Whitehouse has been active in West Coast hardware sales for nearly 15 years. He started his hardware career in 1947 as a millwork salesman for a San Francisco door manufacturer. From 1952 until 1954 he sold sliding door hardware.

From 1952 until the present he has been San Francisco branch sales manager for a prominent firm of manufacturers' representatives, specializing in the hardware and millwork fields.

A Navy veteran of World War II, and a graduate of the University of California, Berkeley, Whitehouse lives with his wife, Helen, and his three sons, Tom, Peter, and Scott, at 855 Solano Drive.

Husband, Wife Team Exhibiting Art at College

Works of a noted husband-wife team of artists, William Horace Smith and Ruth Marie Smith, are currently on display in the St. Mary's College Library.

In their home high on one of San Francisco's hills the Smiths maintain separate studios which have a commanding view of San Francisco Bay, including in its scope five Bay Area counties.

PREOCCUPATION with beautiful views is reflected in the landscapes and seascapes of William Horace Smith included in the St. Mary's exhibit, contrasting with the portraits and still life studies in oil by Ruth Marie Smith.

A past president of the Society of Western Artists, William Horace Smith has been the recipient of many first prizes and other awards in major exhibitions, including those at the De Young Museum and the Palace of the Legion of Honor in San Francisco.

He has had the not-too-common distinction of winning both jury and public choice first awards in the same show.

BORN IN Great Falls, Montana, he studied at the Mark Hopkins Institute of Art and at the University of San Francisco, as well as privately with Davis F. Schwartz, Alexander Nepoti, Ronnie Ross, Ugo Graziotti, and others.

A native San Franciscan, Ruth Smith also studied at the Mark Hopkins Institute of Art, as well as at the California School of

Round Hill Country Club Sets Women's Golf Clinics

A meeting to establish women's golf and social activities at the new Round Hill Country Club, in Alamo, was held recently at the Danville ranch home of Mrs. Le Roy F. Krusi, of Piedmont.

Mrs. Krusi, who is a director of the Northern California Golf Association, hosted newly appointed committee chairmen for the exclusive club which is located between Walnut Creek and Danville.

With construction of the 18 hole championship course practically complete, plans were made to establish a series of nine hole golf clinics to commence when the course is playable in September of this year. It was also decided to have regular monthly luncheon and bridge parties to welcome the new club members and to work out a schedule for family pool activities.

Participating in planning these and other events were: Mrs. Krusi and Mrs. John M. Osmundsen, of Alamo, co-chairmen of the Women's Golf Group; Mesdames Harlan Geldermann, of San Ramon, chairman of the bridge and social committee; John Sparrow, of Danville, and Chester D. Williams, of Piedmont, co-chairmen of the new member welcoming committee; and Richard J. Hauer, of Lafayette, chairman of the family pool activities committee.

When completed, Round Hill will compare in quality with the finest country clubs in the country, and is ideally situated among the scenic and gentle rolling hills of beautiful San Ramon Valley. The course irrigation system has been installed and the greens and tees already seeded. Site grading for a modern, deluxe clubhouse is now in progress. A limited number of proprietary memberships in the club are still available.

Vet Assistants To Meet Tuesday

The Alameda Contra Costa Veterinary Assistants will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at Pelusios, 316 E. 14th Street, Oakland.

The guest speaker will be Richard C. Jacobson of the Oakland Credit Agency. He will speak to the members on collection of bills and handling of delinquent accounts.

State vs. County In Welfare Lie Detector Case

Contra Costa County, threatened with loss of millions of dollars of state and federal welfare assistance for applying a lie detector procedure to a "welfare mother" will get its hearing today.

The California Welfare Board has ordered the County Board of Supervisors to show why some $4 millions should not be refused, since the county took from the welfare rolls a mother of an illegitimate child.

The mother refused to take a lie detector test to establish paternity of the child.

District Attorney John Nejedly said he has been notified that Los Angeles County counsel and the Santa Cruz County Board of Supervisors will appear to support Contra Costa County.

Statements of support have also come from other sources, including the Pleasant Hill Civic Council and the El Cerrito City Council, Nejedly said.

Lee Bates Gets Scholarship

Lee G. Bates of Lafayette has been awarded a scholarship to continue his graduate studies at the University of California at Davis.

Bates, who is working toward a doctor of veterinary medicine degree, has been awarded a Johns-Belknap-Thomas Moss scholarship, said Byron R. Houston, associate dean of the graduate division.

Bates is one of 15 graduate students at Davis to receive scholarships and fellowships to work for M.A., M.S., Ph.D., and D.V.M. degrees and teaching credentials.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G. Bates of 1160 Brown Avenue.

Art Society Is Opening Gallery in WC City Park

The Diablo Pageant of Arts Society will open a rental and sales gallery in the quonset hut across the bridge in the Walnut Creek city park, July 31.

It will be open three times a week, Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday from 1 to 4 p.m.

It will be staffed by volunteers from the area.

RESIDENTS may also rent paintings by the month. The first month's rent can be applied to the purchase price.

Robert Jensen will exhibit his paintings. Edith Dart and Don Yuen will also be featured.

The one man show by Jensen will give the community a chance to see a wide scope of paintings by the winner of the Purchase Award for his painting "Fishermen", to be placed in the permanent collection of the new library.

JENSEN HAS had his paintings shown widely, from San Francisco and Oakland, to the Alameda and Contra Costa County Fairs. Edith Dart, first award ceramist, is well known for her work with the Mills Ceramic Guild. Her ceramics have been awarded recognition throughout California.

Don Yuen, a student at the California School of Arts and Crafts, is an artist of many talents, having received first awards in both the sculpture and jewelry categories. The exhibiting artists are scheduled to meet the public on the opening date.

County Librarian Names New Asst.

Appointment for a six months term of Bernard Van Horne as an administrative assistant in the Contra Costa County Library system is announced by Mrs. Bertha D. Hellum, county librarian.

Van Horne, formerly personnel director of the Detroit Public Library, will analyze personnel requirements and organization in relation to the move in 1961 into the Pleasant Hill-Central library building. The building is now under construction on Oak Park Boulevard, Pleasant Hill.

During July Van Horne will be working in Concord, El Cerrito and Lafayette branch libraries.

Some Tips For Boaters

With summer here again a lot of boating is going on and with that boating there's a lot of danger of dunking and drowning.

The National Automobile Club has a few words to say on this matter of staying safe while doing your boating.

BEFORE you get into that boat, get into your life jacket.

Don't take too many people along. If your boat is under 14 feet in length, you'd better keep the crew at three or less.

Once you're out on the water, avoid the fast currents and the whirlpools. And don't let the current carry you up against a dam, piling, large rock or tree.

Know your contractor and you'll demand Superior

Central County Swimmers Make National Headlines

By ERWIN MATTSON

Donna deVarona, the 13-year-old Lafayette swim phenom, hit the headlines again last week as a result of her performance in the National AAU Women's Senior Championships held in Indianapolis.

She did it on a national basis this time, as she set a new world record when she won the 400-yard individual medley in 5:36.5.

Donna, who has amazed the swimming world with her prowess, drew rave notices for her come-through performance and stamped her as a definite candidate for Uncle Sam's Olympic team.

The Olympic trials will be held early next month in Detroit.

Another local swim performer who looks to be a repeat performer in the Olympics is George Harrison of Orinda, who went to the games four years ago while still a student at Acalanes.

Pleasant Hill hits the sports news with Mike Brodie who took part in the national walking races held last weekend in which he placed 25th.

Junior Legion baseball wound up last weekend. It found Martinez and Concord in a tie for the top spot.

It's the first time ever that two local area clubs are fighting it out for the right to represent the Ninth District in the national playoffs.

It has usually been El Cerrito or Richmond, but both took their bumps in the league play.

Lynn Abbes of Orinda, who was seeded second in the 11-year girls bracket, won over Nancy Bouchillon of West Palm Beach, Florida, Tuesday in a match played in the national tournament being held at Chattanooga, Tenn.

She won her match, 6-0, 6-1 and has an even chance of winning it all in the tournament sponsored by the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association.

Promotion Chief For Raider Game Is Orinda Woman

The last six weeks have marked a change of pace for Mrs. Heber H. Smith Jr., Heather Branch member of Children's Hospital of the East Bay and vice chairman of the executive council of the hospital branches.

For this Orinda housewife, mother of three girls, is serving as promotion chairman for the opening game of the Oakland Raiders, a benefit for Children's Hospital.

Barbara's days have been busy. As many wives do when confronted with business problems, she turned to her husband for help. And in so doing, she consulted an expert.

For Heber H. Smith Jr. is manager of the John Blair and Company in San Francisco, national radio station representatives.

HEBER's advice on radio and television promotion was quickly followed and Barbara moved on from that area of operation to forming committees to set up store window displays. She also interviewed Raider Coach Eddie Edegar and has written articles for the Children's Hospital branch publication, "The Bambino."

The Raiders opening game will be played at Kezar Stadium on Sunday, July 31, at 1:30 p.m. Tickets are $4.50.

Tickets may be purchased in Orinda at the home of Mrs. Anthony Yriberri, 4 Keith Drive, CL 4-5779, and in Walnut Creek at Herb's Hardware, 1539 N. Main, YE 4-4519 (the box office here is open from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Saturdays).

A SELL-OUT at Kezar Stadium will net Children's Hospital of the East Bay approximately $90,000. Each reserved seat sold before the day of the game will net $1 for the hospital.

In addition, after expenses of the game are paid, 40 per cent of the profits will go to the hospital. This means that Children's Hospital of the East Bay will make more on the game than will either team, Mrs. Smith states.

Local Giant Supporter Condemns Rigney Firing

Now I can call myself an honest-to-goodness sports editor! Whatever differences still remain between myself and the top sports columnists on the daily sheets, the greatest distinction has been erased—I am the recipient of a pro-Bill Rigney letter from an irate fan.

This particular two-page letter came from a Walnut Creek realtor, Ray I. Whittemore, who claims the now-deposed Rigney "was a victim of his own success."

Lest his letter be misunderstood because it came from the former Giants' manager's home town, Whittemore added the following postscript:

"Although this comes from Walnut Creek, I hardly know Bill Rigney personally, having only visited with him in six years for five minutes. He does not know of this statement. I have been a sports fan for many years, but this is the first time that I have felt compelled to write a so-called fan letter."

Whittemore's letter embodies the feeling I have shared since the abrupt and tactless firing of Rigney little more than a month ago.

I have not exercised my typewriter's voice in these columns before because I felt, as did most of the other writers in the area, that nothing speaks quite as loud as the voice of an irate fan working under a compulsion to be heard.

So I sat and waited for what, I must admit, appeared to be a lost cause. I didn't think I'd ever get a letter supporting Rigney, primarily because central county sports enthusiasts felt too close to the situation.

But, as the Giants keep losing and the fans get angrier and angrier... well, here's Whittemore's letter:

"Bill Rigney was a victim of his own success. He made it look too easy.

"He came to San Francisco with a second division club, added many minor league players that had not been up before. He kept them in the first division and in contention for first place. He had just two outstanding regular major league players, plus some also-rans, and made the whole group look like champs.

"The success made the KSFO radio broadcast station, Lon Simmons and Russ Hodges, the most popular time on radio, kept the sports pages and the local papers really sought after at a time when local sports reading was generally at a low ebb. In short, he had San Francisco and Bay Area fans NUTS about baseball.

"He had broken attendance records with this new untried group of players, and he was so successful Walter Mails was almost out of a job, and the box office and ticket sales had lost some of their politeness and were on the arrogant side.

"I believe in 2½ seasons with this untried group of players, he won more games than any other team in the league.

"The end result was to be fired publicly before the starting time of a game. Incredulous, you say! Success went to Horace Stoneham's head, not Rigney's.

"I don't remember reading anywhere that Bill Rigney put anyone publicly on the spot by criticizing them to the press or blaming injuries or slumps on his failure to win a pennant.

"He, I believe, took more new players on trips into cities they had never seen before than most managers, and then came back with a winning margin.

"1. When Stoneham pulled out the rug from under Bill Rigney, he killed the 'goose that laid the golden egg.'

"2. He must have let down the 25 players and co-workers. They did not know what the expert next.

"3. Thousands of local fans wondered how come, for they too did not realize how easy Rigney was making his job look.

"4. The rug was pulled out from under KSFO and its sponsors.

"5. The rug was pulled out from under the box office receipts.

"Shortstops and first basemen, all ballplayers, are prone to make errors, but they don't quit, they admit it and keep going.

"Horace Stoneham made an error (he too is human) in firing a 'make it look easy manager.' He should put him back to work. Certainly Milwaukee, Los Angeles and Pittsburgh could not have asked for a better break than to have Bill Rigney out of there."

Whittemore, whom I have never met, seems to have many good points.

It is obvious that something has happened to the Giants, and we have no proof that the same disastrous slump would have affected the San Franciscoans if Rigney had kept the managerial reins.

If you can recall the day Stoneham undressed his manager in front of some 20,000 fans on a beautiful baseball Saturday, you will remember that the Giants were in second place only four games off the pace.

Now, a look at the standings will reveal that the home town club is mired in the second division and is closer to an under .500 percentage than at any time since moving to San Francisco.

Martinez Loss To Walnut Creek Forces Playoff

The Ninth District Junior League Baseball title will be decided this weekend after the two teams wound up with identical 11-2 win-loss records.

A meeting held early in the week resulted in a decision to play the best two out of three games to decide who will represent the district in the beginning of inter-district champs which leads to a national championship playoff on an elimination basis.

THE FIRST game was played Wednesday night under the lights of Alhambra High and the second game will be played Sunday at Concord.

In event of necessity for a third game to decide the issue, play will take place following Sunday's game.

The Martinez club had been riding high all season long as they were undefeated until late in the season.

Martinez looked to be a winner as they held one game edge over Concord going into last week's play.

WALNUT CREEK pulled the rug out from Alhambra however when they came up with their season's best to topple Martinez, 5-4.

In last Saturday's games Concord kept in the race as they out-hit Rodeo 14-4 to register a 10-3 victory.

Orinda found the Lafayette club as their victim when they won, 8-6, despite being out-hit, 10-5, and committing four errors to Lafayette's one.

Concord rolled over Orinda, 14-3, while getting 19 hits to Orinda's 4. Lafayette came up with a good one as they topped Walnut Creek, 6-0, while North Richmond went down, 14-2, with San Pablo the winner.

EL SOBRANTE made the most of eight hits to defeat Richmond who collected 12 safe blows by a 5-4 count in the run column.

Final standings:
Martinez, 11 wins, 2 losses; Concord, 11 wins, 2 losses; San Pablo, 9 wins, 3 losses; El Cerrito, 8 wins, 4 losses; Richmond, 7 wins, 6 losses; Lafayette, 6 wins, 7 losses; El Sobrante, 5 wins, 7 losses; Orinda, 5 wins, 8 losses; Walnut Creek, 4 wins, 9 losses; Rodeo, 2 wins, 10 losses; North Richmond, 1 win, 11 losses.

Young Lafayette Girl Defeats Sylvia Ruuska

Little Donna deVarona, Lafayette's 13-year-old swimming sensation, has come a long way in the 2½ years since she first entered swimming competition.

One of the greatest thrills in her life came last weekend at the AAU National championships in Indianapolis when she swam her heart out and set a new world's record in the 400-meter individual medley, a non-Olympic event. Her time of 5:36.5 was 3½ seconds faster than the prior record.

WHAT MEANT more to young Donna, who is 5 feet 2, weighs 100 pounds, was that in setting the new record she defeated Sylvia Ruuska of Berkeley, who has often been called the nation's greatest all-around swimmer.

Miss Ruuska, who is Donna's teammate on the Berkeley YMCA squad, was a tenth of a second behind the Lafayette girl in the 400-meter. Miss Ruuska also set the earlier world's record in the event at 5:40.2.

Donna, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David deVarona of 3404 Hall Avenue, Lafayette, also finished third in the national 100-meter freestyle finals at Indianapolis. Her father is a former football and crew star at the University of California.

THE YOUNG mermaid, called Liz by her parents, will be featured as the "Athlete of the Week" on radio station KRE at 5:15 p.m. today.

She now has her heart set on making a good showing in the U.S. Olympic swimming trials at Detroit beginning August 2. In the meantime, she is at the men's nationals in Toledo as a spectator.

Miss deVarona's chaperon on the trip to Toledo, Detroit and possibly Rome is George Haines, the Santa Clara and U.S. Olympic swimming coach. The team is also accompanied by a group of women chaperones.

AT DETROIT, Donna will compete in the 100-meter individual freestyle, 100-meter relay, 400-

Thunderbirds Set July 30 as Date For Physicals

Physicals for boys who hope to make the LaMorinda Thunderbirds this season will be held at 2 p.m. July 30 at Miramonte High School, Head Coach Pete Villa announced this week.

Villa said the boys must be 12 through 14 years of age and weigh under 130 pounds in order to qualify. Boys who will not be 15 years old until after September 1 can still play this season, he added.

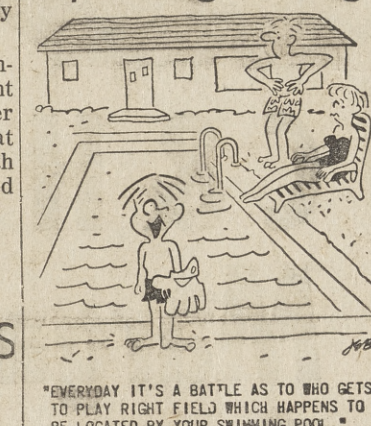

The Thunderbirds are the Lafayette, Moraga and Orinda entries in the Pop Warner Football League. This will be their first season of competition.

Doctors who will be on hand for next week's physicals include John Boulware, Paul Slattery, Frank Spencer and Carl Smith.

Villa also announced the appointment of two new coaches for the team. They are Jerry Doman, captain of last season's Oregon State College team, and John Cadwell, a tackle on this year's OSC squad, who will coach the boys through August.

The team will begin practicing August 6 and its first game will be in September.

Young Newcomer Hurt at Contra Costa Speedway

By JEAN McGUIRE

The two top dogs from the North Bay racing area were awarded the victories of the double main event Saturday night at Contra Costa Speedway. Leroy Geving of Petaluma and Hugh Purdy of Santa Rosa battled a field of tough contenders for the checkered flag in the two 25 lap main events.

Bill Deschamps, the brand new and plenty hot newcomer from Lakeport had the first main event in his pocket, until he and Geving attempted to lap the slower running Hank Alves of Oakland.

Alves would not move to let the faster cars by, and they went into the straightaway three abreast. In the melee, Deschamps' tire rolled over Alves' and his car was flipped end over end.

This was the first flip for Deschamps and he was badly shaken up. He was taken to Kaiser Hospital with a sprained ankle, as his foot became entangled with the brake pedal during the roll-overs.

If I may make a by-stander's prediction, I believe Bill Deschamps, even though only 21, will be a BCRA champion very soon. This is the best new driver to hit the track in years.

Following Hugh Purdy in the second main, were Don Moreda of Petaluma, Roland Lokmor of Concord, and Roy Furnel, another top notch newcomer from Concord. Napa's Gene Dudley tried to push Roy's car out of the way in the final lap, and they both went spinning. The two cars took the checker backwards, but Furnel was awarded the higher position.

Chet Thomson of San Lorenzo took second spot behind Leroy Geving in the first main event, followed by Ray Travels of San Pablo, and Pee Wee Waybright of Decoto.

Three huge cheers for Dave Logan of Concord. The young lead-foot in the Sunset Beauty Bar Special, took the first heat, and very nearly his first trophy.

In an excellent display of driving, Logan kept the gate closed on ex-champion Wally Baker of Sacramento for three laps during the dash. Logan was being pushed every way but backwards by Baker in his attempt to gain the lead, and he held him off like a trooper until the final turn when he went a little too wide and "Crazy Wheels" Baker slipped under him.

Tomorrow night there will be two trophy dashes. The first one will be between the four fastest qualifiers, and the second will be as usual the winners of the four heats.

Be sure and put July 30 down on your calendar! This will be the first Monza-type race of the year; 100 laps run in three segments. Drivers who are able to qualify for the Monza will be able to borrow other drivers' cars if mechanical difficulties make it impossible to finish in their own hardtops.

This should be one of the big thrillers of the year, so if you plan to go, be sure and get there early to assure a seat.

Tomorrow night's card includes the usual 25-lap main event. Time trials start at 7:30 p.m. First race at 8:30 p.m.

Abandoned Animals are A Problem

"When making plans for your vacation this summer be sure to include the proper care for your pets," said Agricultural Commissioner A. L. Seeley. "Many times a dog or cat is left with some neighbor at the last minute or a small child in the neighborhood is asked to assume responsibility for feeding and watering the pet for one or two weeks. This usually results in an unhappy animal that refuses to eat, strays off or barks continually," he said. "Our animal control centers have received numerous calls regarding pets that are not being properly cared for and our officers are picking up many strays belonging to people on vacation," said Seeley. "Another problem that has increased our work load recently is abandoned cats and dogs left along highways and in crowded residential areas as well as where a family has moved and abandoned their animal. "Any person not wishing to keep his cat or dog may bring it to the Animal Control Center, 2777 Arnold Industrial Highway, Martinez, or the Pinole Branch Center, 16949 San Pablo Avenue, Pinole. "The cat or dog will be placed for adoption or disposed of in a humane manner. There is no charge for this service and the public will be assisting our office in reducing the number of stray and unwanted animals in Contra Costa County," he added.
